2019 Supplemental Tax Information

Important Tax Information

This 2019 Supplemental Tax Information insert provides shareholders with important tax information relating to the distributions received or re-invested during the calendar year 2019 from the SA Funds. Because state tax laws and individual situations vary, shareholders should consult their personal tax adviser about the specific rules in the state(s) in which they pay income taxes and how the enclosed information relates to the preparation of their tax return(s).

This letter is for informational purposes only and has not been furnished to the Internal Revenue Service. Please retain this information for preparation of your tax return(s).

Foreign Tax Information

The information below summarizes the amount of income by fund that was derived from foreign sources. The amount reported in Box 7 of Form 1099-DIV represents the amount of creditable foreign taxes paid by the mutual fund. A shareholder may claim this amount either as an itemized deduction or as a foreign tax credit, subject to limitations, on his/her federal tax return. Please consult a tax adviser to determine whether the foreign taxes passed through to you by the fund are either creditable or qualify as an itemized deduction, and whether to make the election to exempt you from the foreign tax credit limitation and the filing requirement of Form 1116. To calculate your total foreign source income passed through from the mutual fund, multiply your ordinary dividends (Box 1a of Form 1099-DIV) by the foreign source income factor shown in the Foreign Source Income Factor column below for the appropriate fund (s). Information is only provided for those funds to which this applies.

Fund	Foreign Source Income Factor
SA Emerging Markets Value Fund	98.75
SA International Value Fund	98.76
SA International Small Company Fund	86.24
SA Worldwide Moderate Growth Fund	47.57
